1. Website

1.1 General information

Protection of the privacy of the users of CEPD website is important to us. In this section we wish to advise you of the types of information collected by Corporation of European Pharmaceutical Distributors N.V. (CEPD), concerning the users of the www.cepd.nl website (the "Website") and explain how the information is used.

Please note that there are certain links to third-party websites available on the Website to which this Privacy Notice does not apply. This means that a link on our Website may redirect you to a third-party website that CEPD does not control – in particular it does not control the terms and policies of collecting and processing information concerning users of such third-party websites.

By using the Website, you agree to the terms and conditions set out in this Privacy Notice.

1.2 Collection and processing of personal data of website visitors

As in the case of most websites, the following data is routinely collected when you visit our Website: name of your internet service provider (IP address, anonymous), the website from which you accessed our Website, the Website subpages you visited, browser type, and date and duration of the visit. Such information is evaluated on an anonymous basis and may not be used to identify the persons visiting the Website. The collected information is used exclusively for the purpose of improving the attractiveness and functionality of the Website.

In addition, CEPD may collect and process user information such as e-mail address and other data (e.g. name, surname, telephone number) provided voluntarily by the user when sending a query, giving comments about operation of the Website or contacting us using a contact form. In any such case, the personal data is provided by the user voluntarily but is indispensable if the question is to be responded to. By providing his or her personal data, a user agrees to the processing of the data only for the purposes of responding to the question. Any personal data that we receive for the purpose of answering a question is stored safely. Any personal data provided to us by a user may only be accessed by persons holding special authorization to access such personal data.

Each user has the right to access their personal data, to demand its rectification or removal, to have its processing restricted, to have the data transferred and to object against the processing of the data, as well as the right to withdraw their consent to the processing of the data, lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority (for NL: Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens) in each case subject to conformity with the rules that follow from the personal data protection laws and regulations. Any personal data we obtain from a user will be processed only for such time as is necessary to respond to the question asked. No data provided to us for the aforementioned purposes will be made available to any third parties. When the data no longer needs to be stored, it will be safely and permanently removed or anonymised, or access to it will be blocked to the extent required by the applicable personal data retention regulations.

2. Collection and processing of personal data of contractors

CEPD may also collect and process personal data of the contractors and contractors' authorised representatives (e.g. name, surname, e – mail address, company data). CEPD collect and process these personal data for the purposes of performance of contract between the Parties, communication for the purposes of performing a contract with a person other than the other party to the contract, for instance communication with employees authorised to act as points of contact, and communication to maintain business relationships. Processing aforementioned personal data is legally based on necessity for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party (Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR) or necessity for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR).

Each contractor or contractor's authorised representative has the right to request access to his/her personal data and obtain copies of the data, to rectification of the data, to erasure of his/her data (in specified circumstances), to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority competent for personal data protection (for NL: Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens), to restriction of processing to object against the processing of the data, as well as the right to withdraw their consent to the processing of the data. CEPD use the services of entities providing day-to-day business support. CEPD may transfer contractor or contractor's authorised representative personal data to those entities. However, CEPD will only disclose your data to them under relevant outsourcing agreements. In case these parties are located outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"), adequate measures will be taken to ensure adequate protection of your personal data. Contractor or contractor's authorised representative data may also be transferred to entities who have the right to request such data in accordance with applicable laws, for instance to law enforcement authorities, based on a valid legal basis (e.g. for the purposes of pending criminal proceedings). CEPD is processing contractor or contractor's authorised representative personal data until a contract expires (thereafter the data may only be retained if this is required or permitted by law, for instance for the purposes of enforcing legal claims) or until the business relationship is terminated or a valid objection is made by the data subject.
